LA for All Campaign

LA Civil Rights launched the LA for All campaign, an anti-hate PSA campaign, which became the largest anti-hate campaign in city history with assets in 18 languages.

The multilingual citywide campaign meets at the intersection of art, advocacy, and community – and stands up for an inclusive Los Angeles with physical assets on nearly 4,500 advertisement spaces throughout Greater Los Angeles.

LA For All continues to grow with more languages in development and the addition of recent partners, including the LA Mission, USC and LAUSD where multilingual banners will soon appear on over 70 campuses across the school district.

More than a passive campaign, LA For All provides a framework for combating hate and divisions by coalescing around Los Angeles values of inclusion, diversity, and belonging for all.

- HRC LA for All Ad Hoc Committee
- LA Civil Rights earned the Bronze Los Angeles American Advertising Award for the LA for All Campaign in the Public Service Out-of-Home campaign category!
- The Los Angeles Zoo joined the campaign

The graphic features the text "LA IS FOR EVERYONE" in large, colorful, block letters. The letters are filled with various colors like orange, green, purple, and blue. Above and below the text are decorative borders with repeating patterns of small circles. At the bottom, there is a yellow banner with the text "SEE OR EXPERIENCE A HATE CRIME OR INCIDENT? REPORT IT." Below this, there is contact information: "Call 2-1-1 or 3-1-1 to report a hate incident. Call 9-1-1 to report a crime in progress. Assistance available in multiple languages. Find resources at CivilAndHumanRights.LACity.org/LAforALL". A QR code is also present with the text "scan me" below it. The City of Los Angeles seal is at the bottom left, and the hashtag "#LAforAll" is at the bottom center.
