LA LAW DAY

QUOTES FROM OUR SPEAKERS AND AUDIENCE:

- “Never too late to become a lawyer!” - Breanna Clifton, attendee
- “If you are close to going to law school and you just need a little bit of help, just know that we are here to help you” - LA Civil Rights Executive Director Capri Maddox, Esq.
- “Don’t be afraid of change as you never know what is going to raise up to meet you” - LA City Attorney Hydee Feldstein-Soto, Esq.
- “Just do it!!!” - Francisca Hernandez, attendee
- “I hope you take away this one truth: there is a place for you in our legal community” - LA County Counsel Dawyn Harrison, Esq.
- “Going to Law School is possible for all ages and backgrounds” - Arshia Sajedi, attendee
- “There is no magic plan that someone can give you that will substitute the practice and work that you have to put in. So the most important thing you can do when preparing for the LSAT is really to sit down and practice” - Associate Dean Nydia Duenez-Johnson, Esq.
- “Being open to change” - Blanca Godoy, attendee
- “A law career can open up a tremendous amount of doors for you and it can give you the opportunity to have a voice and shape the direction of history for our whole society” - LA City Council President Paul Krekorian, Esq.
- “Don’t get discouraged from the LSAT and go at your own pace” - Emma Abramyan, attendee
- “Figure out what area you want to work in and find the right person to give you guidance early on, before you get to law school” - Deputy General Counsel Lynette Jones, Esq.
- “The imposter-syndrome is real and you are going to doubt yourself but the fact that you have come this far already, you are incredibly resilient and you are going to make it” - Marissa Montes, Esq.
