COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

May 2025

Community Engagement Initiatives

Executive Director, Capri Maddox and LA Civil Rights staff participated in the 2025 Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander Heritage Month Opening Ceremony and hosted Rooted in Resilience panel event.

In honor of Second Chance Month, we hosted a screening of the award-winning documentary “Daughters” at the Regal Theater at LA Live.

In recognition of Sexual Assault Awareness Month, we acknowledged Denim Day in the City of Los Angeles.

Community Engagement Initiatives

LA Civil Rights staff participated in the Peer Health Advocate Leadership Conference at Occidental College. Our staff also participated in the LA Times Festival of Books.

The Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc., (TLOD) City of Angels Chapter honored our Executive Director Capri Maddox for her powerful impact on the lives of Angelenos.

We celebrated the 10th Annual Day of Religious Pluralism where we united leaders from across Los Angeles and uplifted all religions.
